

Sharing with Iota-Sigma

January 9, 2012

Hello brothers, with the start of 2013 we leave behind a great year full of new friendships and experiences. We look forward to this new year and the opportunities to come. Iota Sigma begins the spring semester on Jan. 9th as we seek to further our studies and strengthen our bond as brothers. We begin spring recruitment immediately and look forward to potential new brothers. We been awarded for having the Most Improved GPA from the Spring 2012 to the Fall 2012 semester!

Brother of the Month

-Phillip Yarbrough-

Brother Yarbrough IΣ 1021 has served Iota Sigma well as High Iota, risk manager. Brother Yarbrough was initiated on April 2012. He has worked hard to implement a 15 page harm reduction report saving the chapter money and improving the safety of our brothers and guests. Congratulations Brother Yarbrough on taking your officer position to the next level, and keep up the great work!

Alumni Recognition

Jonathan Bull IΣ 888

Brother Bull has written an article accepted into OCLC Systems and Services, a library peer-reviewed journal, for the summer of 2013. Brother Bull has also been invited to speak at the ALA Midwinter Meeting in Seattle from January 24-27, 2013. Congratulation Brother Bull!

There is a new Assistant Dean of Students for Greek life, Leadership, and Volunteer programs on the Valparaiso campus, Carolyn E. Whittier, Ph.D. Dr. Whittier replaces Jennifer Jones-Hall who resigned in the spring of 2011 and Allison Cath,
